

YOU'VE ARRIVED

Welcome to our hotel in Bradford city centre

Enjoy the convenient location of our friendly hotel.

The Great Victoria Hotel, is based just 500 metres from the town centre and less than 100 metres from the main train and bus station, giving you easy access to Bradford's heritage, culture and amazing countryside, such as Haworth-home to the Bronte sisters, Saltaire – where the world famous Sir Titus Salt built his global empire, or even our two fantastic theatres-The Alhambra and the recently restored St Georges Hall.

Built in 1867 and originally a railway hotel, the Great Victoria is a landmark Victorian building right in the heart of the city. We offer stylish décor with a relaxed and welcoming environment for all our customers. We aim to serve exceptional food and offer uncompromising personal service.
